Dear Sir,

I thank you for your letter enclosing an Order on Mr. Quaritch for your subscription to the R. N. S. for 1908, which I presume he will honor, and in that case this will be quite a convenient method of paying the subscription. With compliments,

I am,

Dear Sir,

Mr Quaritch duly honoured your Order on the 6th January, and I sent the official receipt to him. No doubt when accounting to you he will forward it. I would send you a duplicate receipt, but I should somewhat confuse my books for audit if I did so. At any rate this letter is an acknowledgment that payment has duly been made.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir,

I do not find in the books of the Royal Numismatic Society any entry of payment of your subscription for the current year. May I remind you that it became due on the 1st January last. The Society has sustained a certain loss of Members by reason of the War, and I am extremely anxious to get in the subscriptions promptly so that the years' accounts may not show a serious falling off.

I shall be very much obliged, therefore, if you will send me a cheque for one Guinea.

Yours truly,

Hoadly

Dear Sir:-

I am herewith sending you a money order for two guineas to pay for my subscription of the Royal Numismatic Society for 1916 and 1917.

Please pardon my delay in remitting this but I do not remember having received a bill for the current year and consequently kept putting the matter off.

I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours,
